THIS will be a rather to the point post. What we will be addressing here is whether or not Jennifer (Sanders) Lostutter is sleeping around on Deric Lostutter while he is on his 3rd month of a two (2) year sentence in federal prison. Now, there has been quite a lot of speculation to this. Although nothing definitive has come out, it is only a matter of time. Jennifer (Sanders) Lostutter isn't the type to wait around 2 years for any guy. She used to be a stripper, there have been reports on her accepting stripper, there have been reports on her accepting money for sex before marrying Deric, and there have been reports of her even sleeping around quite frequently for free before marrying Deric. The reason her relationship with her first child's father didn't work out is because she cheated on him. Shortly thereafter her baby daddy started using heroin, but has since cleaned himself up and is going the right path in life. Let's begin, shall we?

One indication is that just recently she changed her name on Facebook and added Sanders. A couple of weeks ago it had no indication that her last name was ever Sanders. This is her maiden name. Now, this could mean many things but we will leave that determination up to the reader.

This “glamour” photo was posted on her Facebook on 30 May 2017. Now, this one is different from the other photos I posted above. If you look closely at her left hand, she is no longer wearing her wedding ring.

Now, there have been other photos and videos from the last couple of months she has posted that shows she is no longer wearing her wedding ring.

What does this all mean? Who knows. But the most common speculation is that she has the mindset that she is back on the market.

Well guys, if you want a former stripper, prostitute, porn “star”, and an all around shitty human being, look her up on Facebook. I bet she will tell you she’s single. Enjoy the blue waffle!
